Not illustrated. 1881 Excerpt: .feels constrained to acknowledge the goodness of God and His sustaining power in affliction. They rejoice in the possession of a new parsonage. Peace prevails. The bonds of love are steadily growing stronger, and the church is built up in the knowledge of the truth, and in godliness. The means of grace are well attended. The figures stating the number received on confession do not fully express the true result of the influence of the gospel. The Young People's Society shows a desire to attend the prayer meeting. It is not so gratifying to her to be compelled to report so many dismissals, which was chiefly caused by organization of the Ninth Church. But in this, also, they can acquiesce if it may only prove to be instrumental for the furtherance of the kingdom of Christ. Third Grand Rapids reports thankfulness for great spiritual and...
