The Best Teacher in You: How to Accelerate Learning and Change Lives

By Quinn, Robert E.; Heynoski, Katherine; Thomas, Mike; Spreitzer, Gretchen M.

Berrett-Koehler Publishers, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Provides a framework that enables readers to examine their own beliefs and practices and begin a journey to deeper, more effective teaching. All teachers and administrators who want to explore their own learning and professional growth should begin with this book." --Brian A. McNulty, PhD, Vice President of Leadership Development, The Leadership and Learning Center "What I really appreciate about this book is the emphasis it puts on teacher performance and its focus on strengthening practices that emphasize the learner and learning rather than the extreme focus on results, with the understanding, of course, that the results will follow. This is a tool that could really help all teachers grow." --Melissa Cropper, President, Ohio Federation of Teachers "Invites teachers to participate in "paradoxical thinking" to help them see new possibilities. It is rich in examples and practical possibilities and offers a powerful path to promote professional learning." --Marilyn Parsons, Professor, Department of Curriculum and Instruction, and Associate Head for Undergraduate and Certification Programs, University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign "The very best teachers are the ones who know their learning is never done. Bringing...
