Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Dutch in Western Guiana He himself tells us in his preface that he had always been a great lover of geography and history, and that from an early age he had purposed to write a large description of all America, also that he had personally been upon no less than one hundred and twenty-six islands in the Atlantic Ocean, and had travelled over (among other places) a great part of Guiana. His method of acquiring information about his subject is best given in his own words. I made it my business to purchase or borrow all the history and journalls that I could heare of whether Lattin, Itallian Spanish or Portugais French Dutch or in our Language, wherein I may say I have by reason of a generall generous conversation had luck extraordinary, and herein wt paines I have taken what cost I have been att is so notorious, that over and above the knowledge of a great number of gentlemen which I have been obliged too for a communication of printed books, mannuscripts, pattents commissions, and papers relating to those parts, the many booksellers of England and Holland will doe me right to testifie my continuall inquisition. As to his sources of knowledge for all that concerns Guiana in particular, our author speaks very fully. He tells us the two greatest travailers that ever were in Guiana of Christians were both prisoners in his hands on his voyage to Guiana in 1665. The one was Matteson born at Gaunt, that had managed a trade 22 years for the Spaniards from ye City of St. Thome in Oronoque. The other was one Hendricson a...
